The property: A well presented two bedroom top floor apartment with attractive views. Spanning the uppermost floor of this period building the accommodation comprises a modern, open plan living space which enjoys a newly fitted kitchen housing integrated appliances, panelled wall and a feature fireplace. There are two double bedrooms with built-in storage and a luxury family bathroom with a shower over the bath.

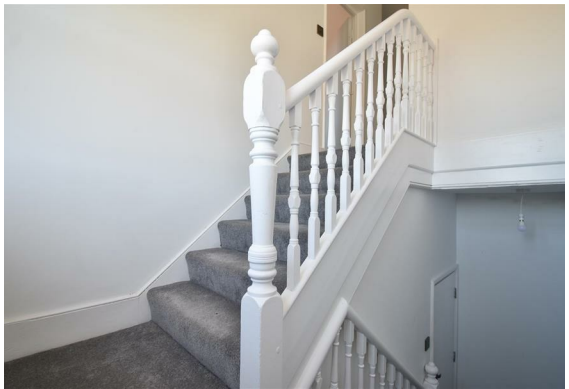

The location: Conveniently situated just a short walk from St Leonards Warrior Square mainline station offering direct links to London. The property also benefits from being moments away from the vibrant selection of local independent shops, cafes, and amenities right on London Road and nearby Kings Road.
