ABOUT THE PROPERTY

An exceptional semi-detached family home that has been comprehensively extended, re-modelled and interior designed to an exacting standard, seamlessly blending period charm with beautifully executed contemporary living. Thoughtfully reconfigured over three floors, the house offers elegant, balanced accommodation, with every detail carefully considered.

At its heart is a spectacular open-plan kitchen, dining and family room, designed for modern family living. This remarkable space features a bespoke Martin Moore kitchen with quartz stone worktops, an impressive central island, extensive handcrafted cabinetry and premium Joseph Giles ironmongery throughout.
