Hogarth Road, Earls Court

£2,300 Per Month

A well-located two-bedroom apartment, perfect for students, just a short walk from Earl's Court Tube Station and Imperial College London. The property is offered furnished and includes most bills (water, heating, Wi-Fi) with only council tax and electricity to pay separately. The flat benefits from a modern kitchen with appliances, a bathroom with shower, and a flexible layout that works well for sharers.

The reception room has been converted into a second bedroom, creating two comfortable double rooms, ideal for students looking to live close to university with excellent transport links. Earl's Court and the surrounding area offer a wide range of shops, supermarkets, cafés, and restaurants, all within easy reach. This apartment provides convenience, value, and a prime location for student living.
