Summary

Oakfield Court was built by McCarthy & Stone and designed specifically for assisted retirement living for the over 70's. Sainsbury's is a level walk straight across the road via pedestrian crossing so independence with shopping is easily maintained. As well as the privacy of your own apartment, there's the opportunity to lead a full and active social life. You can call into the homeowners' lounge whenever you feel like company, and it's a lovely place to meet up with friends or join in the many activities organised by homeowners and the Estate Management team. The lounge is also the perfect space to invite friends and family over for a special celebration.

Open every day between 10am till 4pm is our bistro restaurant serving tasty and nutritious meals for our homeowners and their friends and family, at a very reasonable price. All the food is freshly prepared and we can cater for special dietary requirements.

Oakfield Court also benefits from landscaped gardens and a guest suite for visitors who wish to stay (additional charges apply). For peace of mind, there is an Estate Manager on site and 24-hour emergency call system provided via a personal pendant alarm and with call points in all rooms. There is a covered and secure housing for mobility scooters at the rear of the development.

Entry to the building is by key fob swipe through sliding doors. No need to struggle with keys or a keypad nor any heavy doors.

Local Area

Located along Crofts Bank Road, Oakfield Court is ideally located in the leafy suburb of Urmston, Greater Manchester and close to the Golden Hill Park. Oakfield Court is also conveniently located for the local shops and transport networks. The new Eden Shopping Centre on Crofts Bank Road has a range of shops including a Sainsbury's Supermarket and local library and along Crofts Bank Road there are a host of high street shops including several banks and a pharmacy. The Trafford Centre is also close by which offers an indoor shopping centre, restaurants and cafe bars and a leisure complex. The area of Urmston has benefited from regeneration making it one of Greater Manchester's ideal retirement locations.
