ESTATE AGENTS

A very rare opportunity has arisen to purchase this stunning studio apartment in an award winning conversion of a detached Georgian property situated in a very central location in the city centre. The benefits include gas heating, with wonderful views and an abundance of historic character. The property briefly comprises a studio room, private bathroom and kitchen.

The property has an interesting tale to tell. Believed to have been built around 1830 by Mr Hercules Gentle, the property is the last survivor of an entire street, and indeed suburb, demolished during the 'Sack Of Bath' in the post war years. The property at Angel Place was the subject of an award winning urban regeneration in the early 2000s so benefits from historic character and a modern design. An award from the Building Control Department was presented by Don Foster MP in the Guildhall in 2005. The amazing Southgate neighbourhood with a selection of shops and cafés is within easy reach. The property benefits from extremely close proximity to the City Centre and transport to the Universities, Bristol and beyond. Early viewings are strongly advised, please call 01225 463006 to arrange your appointment.
