

EAST LYNNE, HARPER GREEN ROAD, DOE HEY, BL4 7HT
£450,000

Cardwells are delighted to offer for sale this superb double fronted detached residence which provides generously proportioned living space, which being a period property boasts many original and very attractive features, including high ceilings and some beautiful stained glass windows each of which adds to the character and charm that the property provides in abundance. The property is approached via a private and unadopted road, enjoying a quiet and leafy aspect with a sliding electric wrought iron gate giving access to the property itself having ample driveway parking facilities for 4/5 vehicles and a double garage [subject to car size]. The property is screened from the road by mature trees, shrubs and bushes. There is a front lawn and being slightly elevated, four steps lead up to the very impressive arched entrance and frontage. Presentation of the living space is excellent with stylish decor that complements the traditional ambience of the property. Warmed by a gas fired central heating system, additional benefits include double glazing, an alarm and a CCTV system. Briefly comprises integral porchway/lobby, large L shaped hallway with a wide balustraded, turning staircase off with quarter landing and feature stained glass window. Two very large reception rooms, Fitted kitchen/breakfast room, dining room, rear hallway with cloaks WC off, fabulous modern sun lounge extension with a partial sloping glass roof and two sets of patio doors that lead out to the fully enclosed and very private garden, which for convenience is fully paved and very secure. There is an office behind the garage which again is of a very good size. The first floor is not as big as the ground floor and comprises of a warm and welcoming landing, four bedrooms, the master bedroom has an en suite bathroom, the second is a large double with professionally fitted furniture and bedrooms 3 and 4 could be described as small doubles or very good single bedrooms. There is a separate WC and a family bathroom with both freestanding bath and a shower cubicle. Rarely does an opportunity arise to purchase such an attractive family home of individual design in such a pleasant location and we highly recommend the property to you. Please check out the photographs, the room sizes and the viewing video which does benefit from altitude drone views to give you a full and stunning presentation that this wonderful property deserves.
