Occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.10 acres, this detached home offers around 1815 square feet of well planned accommodation, with a layout that suits modern family life and entertaining in equal measure. The sense of space is evident both inside and out, creating a comfortable and balanced home.

The ground floor is arranged around a welcoming hallway, with a lounge providing a relaxed retreat and a separate sitting room offering flexibility for everyday living. The kitchen breakfast room forms the heart of the house, with space for informal dining and access to the garden, supported by a utility room and a cloakroom that keep practicalities neatly out of sight.

Upstairs, the principal and second bedrooms each benefit from en suite bathrooms, while two further bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, making the accommodation equally suitable for family living or guests.

Outside, a private driveway provides parking for several vehicles and leads to a detached garage, with the added benefit of an electric car charging point. A gated side access opens to the rear garden, where a raised decked seating area flows down to a lawned garden, enclosed and ideal for outdoor living.

Llanrhidian is a highly regarded Gower village, valued for its community atmosphere and access to the Loughor Estuary. Local amenities, a primary school and village pub are close by, with the wider Gower coastline and its beaches and walking routes easily reached.
