Thornton Road, Thornton Heath

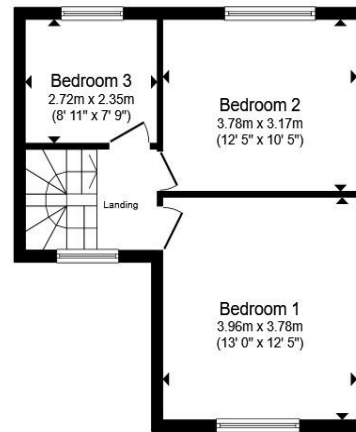

Well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached family home offering generous living space, front and rear gardens, and excellent scope to personalise. Ideally located on Thornton Road with easy access to local transport, schools, and green spaces. This well-proportioned three-bedroom semi-detached home offers bright and flexible accommodation, ideal for families or buyers seeking space with future potential. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a spacious reception room to the front, and a separate dining room with direct access to the rear garden — perfect for entertaining or family living. To the rear, the fitted kitchen provides ample storage and worktop space, also enjoying views over the garden, while a ground floor bathroom completes the layout. Upstairs, the property offers three well-sized bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom and two further rooms ideal for children, guests, or home working. Externally, the property benefits from both front and rear gardens. The rear garden is a good size, mainly laid to lawn with space for seating, outdoor dining, or further landscaping, while the front garden provides additional kerb appeal and separation from the road. Situated on Thornton Road, CR7 6BH, the property is well positioned for transport links including Thornton Heath and Selhurst stations, offering direct routes into Central London. A range of local primary and secondary schools are within easy reach, along with everyday amenities on Thornton Heath High Street. Green spaces such as Thornton Heath Recreation Ground and Grangewood Park are close by, providing ideal outdoor space for families and leisure.
