

A photograph of a three-story brick townhouse with white window frames. A large, leafless tree stands in front of the house, partially obscuring the view. The house has a white-painted ground floor with arched doorways and a black metal fence runs along the sidewalk. The sky is blue with some light clouds.

3 Bedroom | 3 Bathroom | 1 Reception | Freehold

A two-minute walk from Fulham Broadway station, moments from the open green spaces of Eel Brook Common, and just five minutes from Parsons Green, this three-bedroom freehold Victorian house combines exceptional location, space and quality in one of Fulham's most sought-after settings. The house is offered to the market with no onward chain.

Rich in character, the property features impressively high ceilings, elegant cornicing and large sash windows that flood the interiors with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere throughout.

The heart of the home is a striking bespoke kitchen, finished to a high specification with premium materials, ample storage and integrated appliances. A well-proportioned reception room further enhances the living space, showcasing refined period detailing while offering a comfortable and elegant setting for relaxation. There is the addition of a study which has doors directly out onto the
