Nestled in the heart of historic Greenwich, this delightful three-bedroom house on Fergus Street offers an exceptional opportunity to own a piece of London's maritime heritage. The property seamlessly combines contemporary living, creating a welcoming family home in one of London's most prestigious and culturally rich neighbourhoods.

The thoughtfully arranged accommodation spans three bedrooms and two bathrooms across well-proportioned floors, with the master bedroom benefiting from its own private first-floor decked balcony - a perfect retreat for morning coffee or evening relaxation. The private enclosed garden at ground level, mainly laid to paving, provides a low-maintenance outdoor sanctuary ideal for entertaining or quiet contemplation.

This freehold property represents a rare opportunity to secure a distinctive family home in one of London's most celebrated riverside communities, where history, culture, and modern connectivity converge to create an exceptional lifestyle proposition.
