Westfield Road
SLOUGH

Property Description

Westfield Road, Slough – Exceptional Family Home with Annexe & Potential to Extend (STPP).

Situated on a highly sought-after private road, this beautifully presented and immaculately maintained family home offers an exceptional blend of space, versatility, and future potential.

The property is in pristine condition throughout, showcasing spacious and well-appointed living accommodation ideal for modern family life. Every room has been carefully maintained, allowing buyers to move straight in with complete peace of mind.

A standout feature is the large, private south-facing garden, providing a sun-filled outdoor space perfect for entertaining, relaxing, and family use. To the rear, the property also benefits from a substantial, modern annexe, thoughtfully designed with its own private garden area—ideal for multi-generational living, guests, or potential rental income.

Located within the catchment areas of highly regarded local primary & grammar schools, This home is particularly appealing to families seeking excellent educational options. For commuters, the property offers excellent transport links, with easy access to Slough mainline station (Elizabeth Line), providing fast connections into London, as well as convenient access to the M4, M25, and Heathrow Airport.

Further enhancing its appeal, the property presents significant potential for extension (subject to permission), allowing purchasers to further enhance and personalise the home to suit their long-term needs.
