

A croft tenancy is an agricultural unit which is located in one of the crofting counties or specially designated areas consisting of a small area of land plus grazing rights in an area of common grazings shared with a number of other crofts in the local area. More detailed information regarding crofting regulations can be found by going on to www.crofting.scotland.gov.uk or www.crofting.org and Crofters (Scotland) Act 1993 schedule 2.

Badluarach is a stunning rural area which consists of scattered crofts and houses and the croft straddles the road in the hamlet of Badluarach to the shore of Little Loch Broom and enjoys wonderful views across the loch to Beinn Ghobhlach and Ben Mor Coigach in the far distance. The croft land for sale extends to approx. 2.83 hectares (6 acres) of which approx. 0.143 hectares (0.35 acre) is de-crofted and there has previously been planning in principle to build a residential home and garage. The Council have also indicated that they may look favourably on planning applications for the barn and ruin to be converted to residential properties.

There is a two bedroom static caravan with exterior Kingspan on the site with LPG Heating, a log burner and composting toilet. In addition there is a caravan pitch which has power. There are services to the croft and apportionment.

Directions: Travelling west on the A835, turn left at the Braemore Junction on to the A832, continue for 18 miles. Turn right into Badcaul and continue along the single track road for 2.3 miles the croft is here and on both sides of the road.
