

Ripley Gardens, SW14

Accommodation

A beautifully extended four-bedroom semi-detached family home perfectly positioned on a quiet residential road, within moments of Thomson House School, the River Thames, and Barnes Village.

Combining attractive period architecture with a contemporary layout, this property offers generous living and entertaining space arranged over three floors. On the ground floor there is a welcoming front reception room with a classic bay window, offering a cosy or formal lounge area.

To the rear, the house has been extended to create a light-filled open-plan kitchen family room with high vaulted ceilings and an indoor-outdoor flow with full width timber bi-fold doors opening directly from the kitchen onto a private rear garden featuring a paved patio for alfresco dining, low-maintenance artificial lawn, mature shrub borders, and a useful storage shed. There is also gated rear access.

The first floor comprises two comfortable double bedrooms, a well-proportioned single bedroom/study, and a modern family bathroom suite.

The top floor provides a spacious primary bedroom retreat complete with skylights and a private en suite bathroom.

Location

The location is truly exceptional, allowing residents to enjoy leisurely strolls into Barnes Village along the scenic River Thames towpath or explore the vast greenery of nearby Richmond Park. Everything you need is on your doorstep, from the independent shops, cafes, and gastropubs of White Hart Lane to the convenient transport links at Mortlake, Barnes, and Barnes Bridge stations, all of which offer swift connections into central London.

Families will find the home particularly appealing due to its proximity to highly desirable schools, including Barnes Primary, St Mary Magdalene's, The Harrodian, The Swedish School, and St Paul's School.
