Description

Guide Price £800,000 - £815,000. A very special, beautifully presented, and most elegant detached house dating back to the Edwardian era which retains much of its original charm, character and cottage feel. Having been a loving home to the current family for over 35 years, over that time the property has been sympathetically extended in keeping with the original character of the house, and yet it also provides a contemporary ambience. Set back from the road and approached via an elevated driveway providing parking, there is a lovely terraced sitting area with fine distant views to the front. Upon entering the property, there is a lovely lounge with feature cast iron fireplace and this opens directly onto a dining area with a similar fireplace and large double glazed sash bay window to the front. There is an additional sitting room. Deceptively spacious, at the rear of the property there is a kitchen and garden room, with a large roof lantern which floods the room with natural light, in addition to a sash window and French doors opening onto the secluded courtyard style terraced rear garden. Also downstairs there is a cloakroom, utility room, and inner lobby with study area. To the first floor, both the landing and the master bedroom benefit from large windows with feature distant views. Like the main bedroom, the remaining two bedrooms also both feature attractive cast iron fireplaces. There is a family bathroom with attractive roll top claw foot bath, plus an additional shower room.
