The Property

This modern, very well presented, two bedroom apartment is conveniently situated within just a few minutes walk from the centre of Broadstone, with its bustling high street which offers numerous shops and amenities including doctors, dentists and a sports centre.

This modern and well presented apartment is accessed via a communal front door with telephone entry system, there is a hallway with stairs and lift leading to the first floor landing area. The front door opens to a good size reception hall with a double and single cupboard offering good storage. The lounge enjoys an elevated outlook to the front aspect, and there is a recently installed modern fitted kitchen, with integrated fridge/freezer, oven, hob and extractor, a further free standing appliance space and a cupboard conceals the boiler serving the heating and hot water supply. The main bedroom again enjoys an outlook to the front aspect, and there is a built-in double wardrobe and good size en-suite shower room. There is then the second double bedroom enjoying an aspect to the rear and the main bathroom.

The communal gardens are well maintained and predominantly laid to lawn with established hedgerows, there is then a gated parking space, as well as visitor parking spaces, and within the garden there are communal stores and a paved pathway leads to an area where there are communal washing lines.
