Prospective purchasers may be pleased to know that the neighbouring property, Lamp House, is also on the market and is another successful holiday let. This would seem to present an ideal opportunity for buyers seeking to acquire two properties for investment purposes, or alternatively to live in one while generating an income stream from the other. The residences are both currently owned by the same vendors with the convenience of external access between the two properties provided from the rear decking area.

Situated on one of Porthleven's most sought after addresses, Loe Bar Road, this beautifully presented three bedroom semi-detached house enjoys stunning sea and coastal views.

The property is arranged over reverse level accommodation to make the most of its superb outlook and features a delightful balcony, the perfect spot to relax with a morning coffee while taking in the marine vistas.

In brief, the accommodation comprises on the ground floor an entrance hall, shower room and three bedrooms. The first floor offers a fabulous open plan lounge/kitchen/diner designed for modern living and maximising the breathtaking views.

Externally, to the rear of the property is a pleasant decked area, whilst to the side there is a generous patio that also benefits from sea views. With parking often at a premium in the village, a particularly attractive feature is the private parking space to the side of the property.

The home is currently operated as a successful holiday let and benefits from electric central heating and double glazing.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and cliff-top walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
