A charming detached period cottage, believed to date from circa 1850, occupying a peaceful and private position with far-reaching views across the surrounding countryside and adjacent farmland. Set away from the road in a desirable church hamlet village, the property combines considerable period character with well-proportioned accommodation and excellent potential for further enhancement.

The cottage has been thoughtfully extended and offers a delightful triple-aspect sitting room featuring a log burner, an attractive dining room with period fireplace and french doors to the garden.

The country style kitchen has been fitted with a range of base and eye level units with space for appliances and has a useful pantry cupboard. There is also a useful ground floor shower room.

Upstairs there are two double bedrooms, two single bedrooms, along with a fitted family bathroom.

Outside, the mature rear garden is secluded and well established, with a paved terrace accessed directly from both the kitchen and dining room via French doors, creating an excellent setting for outdoor dining and entertaining. To the front is a delightful walled garden. There is ample parking, along with a good-sized garage/workshop offering useful storage and the potential to create a studio or home office, subject to planning.
