4 Linchmere Avenue

Saltdean, Brighton

Spacious 2 bed semi in Saltdean near park and Lido. Planning for new 2 bed house and extension. No chain. Freehold. Flexible layout, large rooms, garage, close to shops, beach, and transport.

Located in a highly sought after Saltdean setting just a few yards from the picturesque Saltdean Park and the iconic Saltdean Lido, this substantial two bedroom semi-detached house presents an exceptional opportunity for both homeowners and developers. Boasting planning permission for a new two bedroom house on the East side and an extension to the original dwelling, the property offers immense scope for future growth as well as immediate comfort. (Plans attached)

The existing house is generously proportioned, with the potential to be reconfigured into a three bedroom layout to suit a growing family or those seeking additional space for a home office or guest room. The bright and airy reception room features ample space for both living and dining, complemented by large windows that flood the area with natural light and provide a welcoming atmosphere. The ground floor consists of a very large lounge, large conservatory, bedroom and separate WC, currently and the first floor has a Bedroom, bathroom and sun room.
