A charming and characterful Victorian cottage in a quiet, tucked away off-road location yet close to the town centre and train station with two reception rooms, three double bedrooms and a private courtyard garden.

The Property

64 West Bar Street, Banbury is a charming Victorian terraced house which is pleasantly located in a tucked away position close to the town centre and train station. The property has been thoughtfully maintained and offers beautifully presented accommodation with many original features including fireplaces, flag stone flooring and sash windows. The accommodation is arranged over four floors with the kitchen/breakfast room and cloakroom/W.C. on the lower ground floor level which provides access to the courtyard garden and on the ground floor there is the entrance hallway, sitting room and dining room. On the first floor there is a central landing, two double bedrooms, a modern family bathroom and stairs leading to the second floor where there is a double bedroom. Outside of the property to the front, there is a small, enclosed gravelled garden area with a path leading to the front door. To the rear of the property there is a very private and pleasant courtyard garden with a walled perimeter and gated rear access.

We have prepared a floorplan to show the room sizes and layout. Some of the main features include:

Entrance Hallway

Main door to the front with flag stone flooring, doors to both reception rooms, stairs rising to the first floor, stairs leading down to the lower ground floor level and a sash window to the rear aspect.
