A meticulously presented four-bedroom semi-detached home, occupying a delightful semi-rural position in Stockley and enjoying attractive views to both the front and rear. Thoughtfully updated by the current owners, the property offers over 2,000 sq ft of spacious and highly flexible accommodation arranged across three floors, together with a generous rear garden.

The ground floor is particularly impressive, centred around a wonderful open-plan reception/dining room which provides an excellent space for both everyday family living and entertaining. Beyond it opens to a further reception space with tri-folding doors on each side, offering additional flexibility as a sitting room, snug or family space. The sleek, well-designed kitchen is thoughtfully arranged with a good range of cupboard and worktop space, while a separate utility room and ground floor shower room add further practicality.

On the first floor are two bedrooms, including the generous principal bedroom which benefits from its own dressing area and newly fitted en-suite facilities, creating a comfortable and private suite. A further double bedroom and additional bathroom accommodation complete this level.

The second floor offers two particularly spacious bedrooms, both full of character and benefitting from the elevated position and surrounding outlook. A useful cloakroom on this floor adds to the versatility of the accommodation.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous rear garden, providing plenty of space for relaxing, entertaining and family use while taking advantage of the peaceful semi-rural surroundings and open views.

Combining beautifully presented accommodation, excellent flexibility and a desirable countryside setting, this is a superb family home which has been carefully improved and maintained by the current owners.
