Steeped in history and dating back to the late 1800s, The Old Court House is a home that instantly stirs the imagination. Full of character and endearing quirks yet offers the practicality needed for modern living.

Arriving via the rear entrance, a generous and welcoming hall sets the tone, with the convenience of off road parking and garage just steps away. From the front, the outlook is charming: neighbouring period homes within a protected conservation area, with village life only moments from the door. Shops, a bakery, two pubs and restaurants, village hall, dentist, and doctors' surgery all sit within easy reach, adding to the sense of community that makes this village so sought after.

The ground floor offers an inviting flow of living spaces, including a large sitting room, a formal dining room and a bright breakfast kitchen, complemented by a cosy snug for quieter moments. Practicality is well catered for with a utility room and a cloakroom with WC and hand basin, while a side porch provides a useful everyday entrance. A large, versatile cellar provide unexpected space - perfect as a home office, playroom, or creative retreat.

For those who prefer to avoid stairs, a lift provides effortless access from the ground floor to the first floor, making the home wonderfully inclusive.

Upstairs, three double bedrooms offer comfort and calm, all having built in storage. The master bedroom, with a walk in wardrobe, en suite shower room, and a serene view over the garden towards Malpas Church - has a picture perfect backdrop to wake up to.

The garden is where this home truly becomes something special. Lovingly described by the homeowner as "a little oasis in the middle of the High Street", it unfolds in layers - lawns, deep beds, ponds, mature trees and shrubs, a greenhouse and potting shed, and peaceful seating areas tucked away for quiet moments. Directly off the Sitting Room patio doors lies a small enclosed walled garden, with steps leading up to the main garden, creating a beautiful sense of discovery as you move through the space.

The Old Court House is a rare blend of history, charm, and practicality - a home with heart, offering something for families, couples and anyone seeking a place that feels truly special.
