Totterdown Street, SW17

A truly charming and well maintained home in the heart of Tooting with four generous double bedrooms, two reception rooms, a large stylish kitchen and a landscaped garden with further scope for extending (STPP).

With a handsome and inviting exterior, the property welcomes you in via a large double reception room furnished with timber floors, bespoke cabinetry, a feature fireplace and a comfortable seating and dining area with an integral fitted kitchen wonderfully balanced with wall and base units, solid worktops and fitted appliances.

Over the first and top floors, there are four generous double bedrooms with excellent proportions and two bathrooms serving each floor. The principal bedroom is perfectly positioned with built-in wardrobes and ample storage solutions.

Totterdown Street is just off the vibrant high street of Tooting, with its wide array of bars and restaurants on the doorstep. The excellent transport links of Tooting Broadway tube station and Tooting overground are only a short distance away with quick access into Central London.
