A well-proportioned ground floor one-bedroom apartment situated within this newly converted development in the centre of Stowmarket. Offering approximately 546 sq ft (50.7 sq m) of accommodation, this apartment provides generous living space together with a practical layout.

The property comprises a spacious double bedroom, separate lounge, fitted kitchen, modern bathroom and entrance hall. The bedroom offers excellent proportions, while the separate lounge provides a comfortable dedicated living space away from the kitchen.

The fitted kitchen provides a separate area for cooking and dining, and the modern bathroom is conveniently positioned alongside the bedroom and living accommodation. Additional storage is also available within the property.

The apartment is ideally placed for access to Stowmarket town centre, with a range of shops, cafés, restaurants and other amenities close by. Stowmarket railway station is also within convenient reach.

There are several apartments available within this apartment block, including further one-bedroom properties and a two-bedroom apartment. Please enquire for further information regarding the other properties available and their individual layouts.
