I've this lovely spacious three-bedroom semi for sale, on Casserley Road, a much sought after area of Colne, offering generous living spaces and a welcoming atmosphere.

This beautifully renovated property is perfect for those seeking a comfortable family home with convenient access to local amenities. Upon entering, we have two well proportioned reception rooms, providing ample space for both relaxation and entertaining. The layout flows seamlessly into the large kitchen and separate dining area, creating a bright and airy feel throughout the ground floor.

The kitchen is modern, and ready for your personal touch, offering a functional storage and space to prepare meals. Upstairs, you will find three comfortable bedrooms, each of a good size, and a single, well appointed bathroom. Outside, the property benefits from lawn area at the front, and a private, secluded garden at the back, offering a pleasant area for outdoor BBQ enjoyment and low maintenance living. On street parking is readily available. The home features gas central heating for warmth and comfort, and is connected to mains water supply. A really popular location, this one provides excellent access to local shops, schools, and transport links, making day-to-day living convenient and enjoyable. This delightful home provides generous accommodation at £175,000. Schedule a viewing today to experience everything it has to offer.
