

Welcome to Dulwich!

Here's a little snapshot of what Dulwich has to offer and a few reasons why we love it!!

Caffeine Fix & Brunch

For those who love coffee, pastries and a gorgeous brunch (who doesn't?!) you've got a plethora of coffee shops, patisseries & cafes which makes it hard to choose a favourite. Some of our favourites include: Kanella & Co (Lordship Lane), Golden Yolk (Grove Vale), Gails (Zenoria Street & Dulwich Village), Eric's (Upland Road), Nido (Melbourne Grove) & Spinach (Lordship Lane).

Restaurants & Pubs

Whether you're a foodie, looking for great food that you don't need to cook or perhaps some lively atmosphere in the evening, Dulwich has you covered in every way! For an incredible Italian visit Rocca or Olivelli. For Japanese, Yama Momo is sensational with a great atmosphere. If you're looking to grab a quick bite to eat or something a bit more comforting, Yard Sale Pizza or Chilli & Garlic are great options for pizza or mediterranean respectively.

Looking for somewhere to enjoy a lively evening or pub lunch? The Crown & Greyhound (Dulwich Village), East Dulwich Tavern (Lordship Lane), The Wood House (Sydenham Hill), The Actress (Crystal Palace Road) or The Great Exhibition (Crystal Palace Road) are some of our favourites and offer great food, drinks and a lovely atmosphere!!

Schools

When thinking of moving area or starting a family, schools are a huge consideration. Dulwich has a superb number of outstanding private and state schools which include: JAGS (James Allen's Girls' School), Alleyn's School, Dulwich College, North Dulwich or East Dulwich Charter School, Harris Academy, Goodrich Primary, Heber Primary along with many others.

Transport Links

If you work in The City and need to consider your commute time/route into work or for the social butterflies who like to explore and enjoy their surroundings : East Dulwich Station (Zone 2, Southern) & North Dulwich Station (Zone 2/3, Southern) offer frequent and direct services to London Bridge in c. 15 minutes.

Notable Mentions

Dulwich Picturehouse - brilliant local independent cinema with a café & bar inside. North Cross Market - every Saturday with an incredible variety of independent food stalls, Bora - best fruit and veg shop around & William Rose Butchers - great quality butchers.
