30 Roman Court, Blackpill, Swansea, SA3 5BL

£245,000

Set between the sweeping shoreline of Swansea Bay and the green expanse of Clyne Gardens, this first floor apartment enjoys a quietly enviable position within one of Blackpill's most peaceful residential settings. The promenade, beaches and coastal path are all close at hand, while nearby cafés, village amenities and the vibrant atmosphere of Mumbles create a lifestyle that feels both relaxed and well connected. Excellent road links and access into Swansea city centre further enhance the appeal of this well placed coastal home.

Extending to approximately 888 sq ft, the apartment offers well proportioned accommodation with a calm and comfortable feel throughout. A welcoming hall leads into a generous lounge filled with natural light, creating an inviting space for both everyday living and quieter evenings at home. The kitchen is thoughtfully arranged with ample room for dining and practical use.

Both bedrooms are genuine doubles, each offering a restful outlook and excellent proportions, while the bathroom is centrally positioned to serve the accommodation with ease. The overall layout has been carefully balanced to provide comfort, privacy and a pleasing sense of space.

Surrounded by coastline, parkland and the distinctive character of the Gower approach, this is a home well suited to those seeking a quieter pace without losing touch with the cafés, culture and natural beauty that define this part of Swansea.
