This beautifully presented two-bedroom period townhouse is conveniently located within a small private gated development off a quiet street in the heart of picturesque Bridgnorth. The property was originally part of the Old Bakery dating back to the 1850s and is within the towns conservation area. A short level walk takes you to many of the towns amenities, the High St shops, cafes, cinema and quaint pubs and restaurants. Also close by are the Castle Gardens, Theatre, famous Severn Valley Railway and picturesque Riverside. There is also a doctor's surgery and hospital within walking distance.
