This unique property provides the perfect balance of traditional and contemporary styles resulting in a fabulous family property within a desirable central location of the town. The home offers flexible accommodation over three levels which will appeal to many growing families. The rather handsome and majestic stature of the property occupies an extensive corner plot, providing private parking and access to the front and a main door access from the side.

Internally, the property exudes a great deal of traditional charm, with beautifully preserved features, flooring, doors and architraves providing various points of interest throughout the home. Presented to market in fine condition and painstakingly maintained and improved over the course of owners stay, the decorative theme compliments the feeling of space and light throughout the home, whilst emphasising the beautiful period details.

Accessed via the main door, the subjects of the internal accommodation are best summarised as:- Welcoming reception hallway which flows both up and down to all other apartments. The quirky layout allows for flexible use of the home, best suited to individual requirements. The home embodies a magnificent reception room with, formidable bay window formation, with the grand fireplace as focal point. On the same level you have access to 3 double bedrooms and a useful shower room. The kitchen is well appointed, with ample base and wall mounted storage and number of appliances. On the same level as the kitchen there is the main bathroom and a further double bedroom which over looks the garden to the rear. a few steps down is the main dining room (Bedroom 5), with a Juliet balcony over looking the substantial gardens.

On the ground level there is a further family room with french doors giving access externally. Off this room there is a useful utility room with w/c and a main door providing access to the front of the property/driveway.

In essence a charming family worthy of personal appraisal

Externally, the property sits upon an impressive level garden plot which is perhaps best appreciated by first-hand inspection. Established planting and seasonal trees/bushes offer a colourful definition, whilst good sections of lawn, stone combine to great effect. The rear of the property is stocked with mature flowering bushes and trees which creates a real sense of peace and privacy with a patio and a raised decked area providing ideal spots to relax and/or entertain. The south facing rear garden is fully enclosed, perfect for young children and family pets.
