Glebe House

Location & Description

Glebe House enjoys a convenient position in the heart of the old village of Cradley on the border of Herefordshire and Worcestershire. The property is strategically well placed for access to a number of major centres including the city of Worcester (ten miles), Hereford (sixteen miles), Malvern (five miles) and Ledbury (seven miles). The favoured village of Cradley is well served with a number of local amenities including a village store, doctor's surgery with a dispensing pharmacy, primary school and the Red Lion public house, which is within easy reach at Stiffords Bridge. The property is close to the church and listed black and white village hall, where there is heritage room (offering office facilities) and a post office service, which visits twice a week. The popular towns of Great Malvern and Ledbury both provide further excellent facilities and amenities including mainline railway stations. The property is also well placed for transport links with the M5 motorway accessed at Worcester and the M50 to the south of Ledbury. The local area is also renowned for its educational facilities including a variety of highly regarded state and private schools (notably Malvern College and Malvern St James School as well as The Downs and Elms Preparatory Schools).

Property Description

Originally built in the 1947, Glebe House is a modern detached family home offering well proportioned and versatile accommodation. The property has been well maintained by the current owner and benefits from gas fired central heating and double glazing throughout. The accommodation was substantially extended in 1982 and in 1987/1988 resulting in the creation of a comfortable home, easily adaptable for everyday family life.

On the ground floor an entrance hall leads a dining room, dual aspect sitting room overlooking the garden with an adjoining conservatory, separate study, breakfast kitchen with an oil fired AGA, utility/boot room and a cloakroom.

On the first floor a galleried landing leads to a spacious master bedroom with built in wardrobes and an en suite shower room, three further bedrooms, family bathroom and a separate WC.

Glebe House is approached by a gated access leading to a gravelled driveway providing excellent parking and with access to a DOUBLE GARAGE. The house sits proudly within a beautifully wrap around landscaped garden. The garden has been designed to provide interest all year round and is planted with an abundance of mature shrubs, plants and trees.

A great strength of Glebe House is its delightful position enjoying a sunny south west facing aspect. It truly is a wonderful spot, within immediate reach of numerous countryside walks and a network of public footpaths passing through the village.

With so much to explore, the agents strongly recommend an internal inspection.
