The property has an attractive and distinctive exterior, with brick elevations at ground-floor level and tile-hung elevations above, beneath a tiled roof with UPVC double glazing throughout. To the front, a generous gravelled driveway provides ample parking, with pedestrian access continuing alongside the house to the rear garden.

Internally, the accommodation is light, comfortable and well arranged. The living room occupies the front of the house, while to the rear is a fitted kitchen together with a separate dining room, where patio doors open directly onto the garden, creating an easy connection between the house and outside space.

On the first floor are three double bedrooms, providing particularly useful and versatile accommodation, together with the family bathroom.

The rear garden is an appealing feature of the property, predominantly laid to lawn with areas for sitting and outdoor dining, established planting and a good degree of enclosure. Of particular interest is an original post-war outbuilding, which provides valuable additional storage together with a shower and WC. This unusual ancillary space adds considerable practicality and could potentially lend itself to a variety of uses.
