Prominently located alongside Milnthorpe Road, one of the primary routes leading into the sought after Lakeland town of Kendal. This attractive looking home is set on a corner plot, offering an enclosed garden to the front and side with hard landscaping to the rear where there is a larger than average garage. The accommodation is well proportioned and features two reception rooms and a kitchen with ample space for a dining table, a large heated porch, a landing that leads you to a smartly modernised bathroom and three double bedrooms. The property could be further improved through modernising and redecoration. No upper chain.
