THE LOCATION

The property is located in a popular residential location with the wonderful green spaces of Cannon Hill Common opposite the house. The amenities of Grand Drive and popular sought-after schools, including St John Fisher RC Primary School, are also within easy reach. Raynes Park Mainline Station provides fast and frequent services to London Waterloo. Morden Tube Station is a short bus ride away.

THE PROPERTY

Fuller Gilbert are delighted to offer for sale this superbly presented classic 1930s Art Deco-style semi-detached family home, ideally positioned overlooking the beautiful Cannon Hill Common. Approached via a private driveway providing ample off-street parking for multiple vehicles, the property offers generous and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. The ground floor comprises two spacious reception rooms. The front reception room enjoys wonderful views over Cannon Hill Common, while the second reception room benefits from direct access onto the private rear garden. There is also a separate kitchen with a side door providing convenient access to the garden, together with a downstairs WC. The first floor provides three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two generous double bedrooms and a further smaller double bedroom, which would also make an ideal home office or study. A family bathroom completes this floor. The top floor is dedicated to a spacious double bedroom with the added benefit of an washroom, creating an excellent private principal bedroom suite. Externally, the property enjoys a private garden and a prime position on the road, with delightful uninterrupted views across Cannon Hill Common. Well presented throughout and offering further potential to extend the ground floor, subject to the usual planning consents, this attractive home is likely to appeal to a wide range of buyers seeking a characterful family property in an enviable location.
