MORE THAN JUST AN ESTATE AGENT

2 Bedroom Bungalow located in Sheffield

Nestled within this charming, quaint cul de sac located in the heart of Mosborough village. This delightful bungalow offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a comfortable and convenient living space. The property boasts a timeless design that harmoniously blends with its surroundings, making it an ideal choice for those looking to potential downsize, or be on the door step to a plethora of local amenities.

The bungalow is thoughtfully designed to provide a practical layout, ensuring that every inch of space is utilised effectively. Although the property occupies a generous plot , it is worth noting that bungalows provide a single-storey living arrangement, ideal for those seeking to avoid the use of stairs.

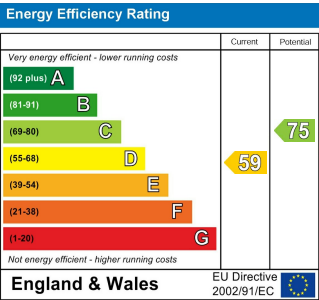

One of the standout features of this property is the dedicated parking space and additional garage, providing added convenience for residents and visitors alike. The location in Church Mews is particularly appealing, as it offers a peaceful environment while still being within easy reach of local amenities, parks, and transport links.

This bungalow presents a wonderful opportunity to create a cosy home in a sought-after area of Sheffield. With its practical features and charming surroundings, it is sure to attract interest from a variety of buyers. Be sure to take the opportunity to view this delightful property and imagine the potential it offers for your future.
