Welcome To Axminster

Axminster is a small market town located in East Devon, England. The town is situated on the River Axe and is surrounded by beautiful countryside. Axminster is known for its historic buildings, including the 15th-century church of St. Mary's and the Grade II listed Guildhall. The town is also famous for its carpet industry, which dates back to the 18th century. The Axminster Carpets company was founded in the town in 1755 and is still in operation today.

Axminster is a popular destination for tourists who come to explore the town's rich history and beautiful surroundings. The town is home to a number of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants, as well as a weekly market that sells local produce and crafts. Visitors can also enjoy a range of outdoor activities, including hiking, cycling, and fishing. The nearby Jurassic Coast is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is home to some of the most stunning coastal scenery in the UK.

Despite its small size, Axminster has a vibrant community and a rich cultural heritage. The town hosts a number of events throughout the year, including the Axminster Carnival, the Axe Vale Festival of Gardening and Crafts, and the Axminster Arts Festival. The town also has a strong musical tradition, with a number of local choirs and bands performing regularly. Overall, Axminster is a charming and welcoming town that offers visitors a unique glimpse into the history and culture of rural Devon.
