SITUATION

Galmington Farm is situated in a serene, semi-rural location just outside Shebbear, one of North Devon's most picturesque and historic villages. Shebbear is best known for its thriving local community, village green, local pub, and Shebbear College, a well-regarded independent school. The area is renowned for its unspoilt countryside, perfect for walking, cycling, and riding, while also being within easy reach of Dartmoor National Park and North Devon's beaches, making this an ideal family home or rural escape.

DESCRIPTION

This beautiful and well-presented home offers comfortable and spacious accommodation with a generous annex all overlooking impressive gardens and rolling countryside beyond. Planning permission has been granted for the conversion of the additional stone-built barns into 7 properties, all with separate access.

ACCOMMODATION

Ground Floor

The farmhouse offers a flexible and spacious layout. The welcoming Sitting Room, a light and airy room, features a cosy log burner and views to the garden and leads to the inner hallway with handy cloakroom and generous storage cupboard. From the hallway the Family Room mirrors the sitting room with its own log burner and lovely French doors leading out onto the garden. The contemporary farmhouse-style Kitchen is well-equipped with cupboards and appliances, the epitome of modern rural living.

First Floor

The first floor offers three double bedrooms, including a large and impressive Principal Bedroom with and separate dressing room, which could be used as an additional bedroom, and large en suite with luxury shower, WC and vanity unit. Bedroom 2 also boasts an en suite shower room and, like Bedroom 1 have fabulous views across the garden. A well-appointed family bathroom serves the upstairs bedrooms.

ANNEX

Ground Floor

From the main door the annex has its own inner hallway, connecting it to the main house, which leads to the lovely kitchen with plenty of cupboard space and work surfaces. A central island gives character to this welcoming room. From the hallway a bright sitting room has French doors to a patio area and the garden. The annex also has separate independent access from the kitchen to the outside.

First Floor

The landing leads to a sunny Principal Bedroom with ensuite bathroom and separate small dressing room. The second annex bedroom is perfect for guests and is served by a separate bathroom with bath, shower, WC and washbasin. In all, the annex offers independent accommodation whilst sharing the glorious countryside views.

OUTSIDE

Galmington Farm is surrounded by mature gardens, with expansive lawns, orchard trees, and beautifully planted borders. The grounds are ideal for families, keen gardeners, or those looking for a peaceful outdoor lifestyle. A private sweeping drive provides ample off-road parking and turning space.

A particular feature of the property is the separate gym. Accessed from the courtyard, this sizeable room offers a dedicated space for fitness fans.

BARN

The attached barn has been granted planning permission for conversion to one holiday unit and six residential units. Please refer to planning ref 1/2095/2004/COU and 1/0008/2013/FUL for full details. The units have separate access from the main house and enjoy dedicated gardens, parking and similar far-reaching views of the countryside.
