1 Plough Cottages is a delightful former farmworkers abode which was formerly a public house and provides characterful and interesting accommodation arranged over two floors and enjoys a delightful rural location overlooking the village green with open farmland views to the south. The property would benefit from a degree of modernisation and improvement.

A glazed and panelled door accesses a useful entrance hall which has views to the village green, laminate flooring and a glazed and panelled door leading to the kitchen breakfast room. This is fitted with a range of floor mounted oak effect units with granite effect work surfaces, a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink, a Rayburn cooking range on a tiled hearth, and there is a door to a useful larder/pantry cupboard and a window overlooking the rear garden.

Directly accessed from the kitchen breakfast room is a spacious sitting room which has two windows to the south elevation giving views over the garden and farmland beyond, beams to the walls and ceiling and a tiled hearth and fire surround providing a focal point and oak effect flooring. From the kitchen there is a small lobby beyond which is a garden room which has French doors to a terrace on the south elevation and a glazed and panelled door to a further large and useful storage cupboard. The bathroom is accessed from the entrance hall and is of a generous size and has a tiled bath surround with shower attachment, pedestal wash hand basin and matching WC, wood effect flooring, worktop and plumbing for a washing machine and space for a dryer beneath.

The stairs rise from a kitchen breakfast room to a half landing beyond which is the main landing with a view to the rear garden and fields beyond. The principal bedroom is situated to the front elevation and has a sash window providing views over the village green and a casement window giving views to the farmland beyond. The second bedroom is situated to the rear and benefits from a dual aspect and has far reaching views and the third bedroom is also situated on the same southerly aspect and has a useful walk in wardrobe and beams to the ceiling. There is a linen cupboard on the landing.
