We have pleasure in offering to the market this truly unique Lindal Cedar home; a detached, family orientated home originally constructed in the early 1990s to an American timber framed design of post and beam construction making excellent use of many natural materials including cedar cladding, oak faced internal doors, exposed beams, natural timber skirtings and architraves.

The property offers interesting architectural elements including a full height window to the inner reception; the focal point to the house is a truly stunning main reception with a high cathedral vaulted ceiling and perimeter galleried landing flooded with light having high level windows as well as a pitched roofed garden room at the rear. The centre point to this room is its contemporary fire place with "floating" flue. This space boasts a significant floor area and links into two further reception areas including a well proportioned hallway and study. An open plan dining kitchen provides a well proportioned light and airy space benefitting from a dual aspect as well as access out into the rear garden. To the first floor there are four bedrooms including a particularly spacious principal suite benefitting from a walk in dressing room and ensuite bathroom. In addition a further family bathroom services the three remaining bedrooms, all situated off an impressive galleried landing.

As well as the internal accommodation the property occupies a delightful plot lying in the region of 0.46 of an acre with ample off road parking and double garage. To the rear of the property is a wonderful established garden with delightful views across to adjacent paddocks and the River Devon at the foot.

Overall this is a truly fascinating, individual, bespoke home of generous proportions tucked away on a quiet backwater within this pleasant hamlet and is perfect as a family home which, subject to consent, could offer scope to expand the accommodation further. Overall viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.

MUSTON

There is a public house/restaurant in Muston and further facilities are available in the adjacent village of Bottesford including primary and secondary schools, several public houses and restaurants, railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham from where there is a fast rail link to London's Kings Cross in just over an hour and there is a daily bus service to the Grammar Schools in Grantham. The A52, A46 and A1 are also close by providing excellent road access. There are local walks along the Grantham canal and pretty Vale of Belvoir countryside which links to nearby picturesque villages, many of which offer highly regarded public houses and restaurants. The village is a stone's throw away from Belvoir Castle which holds events and shows throughout the year. Muston also boasts 'Muston Meadows' which is understood to be one of the finest lowland meadows in England, extending to approximately 41 hectares offering a haven for local wildlife and plants.
