Phase Two of the remarkable transformation of the former Debenhams department store on Palmerston Road has arrived. Once a thriving retail landmark in the heart of Southsea, Handley's Corner has been thoughtfully reimagined by St Cross Homes into an exceptional collection of contemporary apartments.

Combining the character and heritage of this iconic building with stylish modern design, Handley's Corner offers spacious, beautifully finished homes tailored to modern urban living. Each apartment features high-specification interiors, elegant finishes, and carefully considered layouts that deliver both comfort and sophistication.

Perfectly positioned in central Southsea, residents can enjoy immediate access to the area's vibrant café culture, independent boutiques, restaurants, and seafront attractions, while still benefiting from the welcoming community atmosphere the area is renowned for.

This exciting development by St Cross Homes presents a rare opportunity to experience premium modern living in one of Hampshire's most sought-after coastal neighbourhoods.
