Why you'll like it

This two-bedroom end-of-terrace home in Keighley offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a property with scope for modernisation and the freedom to put their own stamp on it. Offered for sale with no onward chain, the property provides a practical layout, useful storage and a private rear yard.

The ground floor features a generous reception room with a central fireplace surround, neutral décor and carpeted flooring, providing a comfortable living space and a good foundation for updating to individual taste. To the rear is a separate kitchen, fitted with cabinets, worktops and space for appliances, together with direct access to the outside.

Upstairs are two well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering practical layouts and scope for additional storage. The bathroom is fitted with a shower enclosure, wash basin and WC. Further useful storage areas are available throughout the property, adding to its everyday practicality.

To the rear is an enclosed yard with a useful shed, providing additional external storage together with space for bins, seating or container planting.

The property is situated within a residential area close to Keighley town centre, placing a wide range of amenities within easy reach. Supermarkets, independent shops, cafés and everyday services are all readily accessible, while the surrounding area offers a choice of parks and green spaces.

Keighley railway station is also within reach, providing regular services to Leeds and Bradford, with typical journey times of approximately 30–40 minutes. Local bus services offer further connections throughout Keighley and to surrounding towns and villages.

Offered with no onward chain, this two-bedroom end-of-terrace property represents an appealing project for buyers looking to modernise a home to their own specification, as well as investors seeking a property with clear scope for improvement in a well-connected Keighley location.
