Location

Mill Meadow is quietly tucked away in the tranquil countryside alongside an established lake in the hamlet of Mill Cross, on the edge of the picturesque village of Kingston St. Mary, at the foot of the Quantock Hills. The area is renowned for its beauty, its charming country villages with excellent local pubs, delightful walks, local riding on bridle ways or fishing opportunities. Many and varied landscapes and opportunities sit right on the doorstep, or you can simply relax and enjoy the tranquil surroundings. Both Exmoor and Dartmoor are within easy reach, as are the north and south coasts.

The county town of Taunton offers an excellent range of local facilities including shopping and leisure, fine dining and international cuisine, theatre, museums and county level cricket.
