Haddenham Road

Leicester, Leicester, LE3 2BG

This lovely mid-terraced home is truly worth a look. It's full of character but also has a fresh, modern feel throughout. The property sits in a well-established and convenient area, close to the amenities on Narborough Road and just a short distance from the popular West End, with its great choice of bars, bistros, and restaurants.
As mentioned, you really need to step inside to appreciate everything this home offers. In brief, there's an entrance porch, a spacious and attractive lounge, separate dining room, kitchen, two double bedrooms, and a bathroom with a four-piece suite. Further benefits include a new boiler fitted in late 2026, adding to the home's appeal and providing extra peace of mind. Outside, you'll find a small front garden with a brick boundary wall and shared side access leading to a south-facing rear garden that's slightly larger than average.
If you're looking for a stylish, move-in-ready home in a convenient location, this one is definitely worth an early viewing.
