Further enhancing the appeal of this property is the abundance of convenient features designed for modern living. The entrance to the flat is sheltered, ensuring comfort and privacy, with separate doorways for each flat rather than communal hallways. Residents enjoy access to a well-maintained communal garden with paved pathways and green lawn areas. The balcony extends the living space outdoors, offering a pleasant view of the gardens and a perfect setting for morning coffee or evening relaxation. Well-suited for professionals, couples, or small families, this flat combines functional design with attractive communal amenities, promising a comfortable and stylish lifestyle within a welcoming residential setting. Westbrook is a popular block due to its superb location, with the variety of shops, eateries and much more on Lustrells Vale. Also, the bus service providing frequent access to Brighton City Centre. Saltdean Park, The Saltdean Lido Swimming pool and the seafront with beach access are all a 5 to 10 minute walk. The flat also has the bonus of an allocated parking space.
