Location

The village of Newhall is conveniently located close to the town of Burton-upon-Trent and Swadlincote and benefits from easy access to the A511 and A444, which in turn gives access to the motorway network, including M42, M6 and M1. The major conurbations of Birmingham and Leicester are approximately 19 and 27 miles respectively.

Newhall has a vast range of amenities including schools for all ages, convenience store, general stores, post office, village hall and community centre, alongside a doctors surgery, chemist and a large open parkland in the centre of the village.

Ground Floor - Overview

This traditional THREE-BEDROOM semi-detached home offering plenty of character and excellent potential.

The accommodation begins with a cosy lounge featuring fireplace, carpeted flooring and door through to the Inner Hallway. The inner hallway leads to a versatile second reception room/dining room, ideal for family dining or additional living space, with stairs to the first floor, under-stairs storage accessed via the inner Hallway and views over the rear garden. An archway leads through to the fitted kitchen, with the family bathroom located just off.

First Floor - Overview

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms. Bedroom One overlooks the front elevation and benefits from a useful storage cupboard, while Bedrooms Two and Three enjoy views over the rear garden.

Outside - Overview

Outside, the enclosed rear garden enjoys lawned and seating area, while the front offers a block-paved frontage with potential for OFF ROAD PARKING, subject to the necessary permissions.

A characterful home offering an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to create a property to their own taste.
