Garage/Workshop 8.87m x 3.92m

Large attached garage with up-and-over door providing excellent space for vehicles, storage or workshop use. Set on a solid concrete base, equipped with power, lighting and plumbing, including a Belfast sink for added practicality. The generous proportions allow ample room for workbenches, shelving and hobby space, making it ideal for DIY projects, crafts or maintaining outdoor equipment. Attic storage space above. A pedestrian door is positioned beside the main garage door for convenient access.

Grounds

Occupying a large plot measuring around 0.7 acres with impressive, elevated views across Loch Fyne. The grounds combine lawned areas with established planted areas and natural landscape. A generous stone-chipped driveway to the rear provides extensive parking for multiple vehicles and boat storage, with an outside tap and log stores also positioned here. The garden area is defined by stock fencing, creating a manageable outdoor space while retaining the wider natural surroundings of trees and shrubs where wildlife is regularly seen. Productive vegetable patches with raised beds sit within the garden along with a chicken wire enclosure suitable for keeping poultry. A greenhouse positioned on a pebbled stone area at the side of the house enjoys full sun. To the front, timber gated entrances lead either to a lawned area or a patio seating space where the hot tub is currently situated. Slabbed pathways connect the various outdoor areas including a seating spot ideal for barbecues and entertaining. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with a sloping section leading down to stock fencing at the lower boundary, while a timber-fenced area to the side provides a quieter seating corner finished with decorative pebbles, perfect for enjoying the evening sun. Attractive bedding borders at the front feature a colourful mix of perennial flowering plants including poppies, lupins, azaleas and daffodils. The surrounding fields, often grazed by sheep, add to the charm of this scenic location and enhance the sense of countryside living.
