

39 St. Johns Road, Turnchapel, Plymouth, PL9 9SR

Price £585,000

Nestled in the charming waterside village of Turnchapel, this stunning four-bedroom semi-detached home perfectly blends character and modern living. Thoughtfully renovated throughout, the property offers versatile accommodation, spectacular views, and a wonderful setting for family life.

On the ground floor, the welcoming entrance porch opens into a bright and airy dining/family room – a space filled with natural light. The cosy lounge, complete with feature fireplace, while the showpiece of the home is the beautifully designed shaker-style kitchen/breakfast room. Fitted with an excellent range of wall and base units, integrated appliances, and ample workspace, it is both stylish and functional. A useful pantry/utility room provides additional storage.

Upstairs, to the front are two double bedrooms, each with fitted wardrobes, alongside an additional study area. Towards the rear, you'll find another double bedroom and a generous family bathroom featuring a freestanding bath, WC, wash hand basin, and a separate corner shower unit. The master suite is truly special – offering breathtaking, far-reaching views across the garden and beyond, fitted wardrobes, and a private ensuite shower room.

Externally, the home is equally impressive. To the front, a neatly maintained lawned garden enhances kerb appeal. To the rear, a generous garden awaits, complete with a well-kept patio seating area, mature shrubs, and a lawn. From here, the panoramic views are simply spectacular, sweeping across Plymouth Hoe, the Barbican, Sutton Harbour, and right around to the Cattewater.

This exceptional property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy a peaceful village setting with unrivalled outlooks over Plymouth's historic waterfront. A viewing is essential to fully appreciate everything this beautiful home has to offer.
