Location

Waldeck Road is situated in a quiet residential pocket of Chiswick, one of West London's most sought after neighbourhoods. The area is known for its tree-lined streets, attractive period homes and easy access to the River Thames, while nearby Chiswick High Road offers an excellent selection of independent cafés, restaurants, pubs and boutique shops. The nearest station is Kew Bridge railway station, with regular South Western Railway services providing direct connections to London Waterloo station in approximately 25–30 minutes.

Transport

The development is well connected by both rail and road travel. Kew Bridge station is just nearby, offering direct services to London Waterloo in approximately 30 minutes. For motorists, the property enjoys easy access to the A4/M4, providing convenient routes into Central London, Heathrow Airport and the wider motorway network.

Parks, green space and recreation

Residents can also enjoy the open spaces of Chiswick House and Gardens, making the area ideal for leisure, exercise and family outings. Nearby Gunnersbury Park features landscaped gardens, sports facilities, walking trails and a museum, while the scenic Thames Path and Kew Bridge provide picturesque riverside walks and cycling routes.

Schools and businesses

Waldeck Road is well positioned for access to a range of highly regarded schools, making it an attractive location for families. The surrounding area offers an excellent choice of both state and independent schools, including several with strong reputations for academic achievement. There are also a number of well-regarded nurseries and primary schools nearby, with further education options easily accessible across Chiswick and the neighbouring areas.

Amenities

Waldeck Road enjoys an excellent location close to a wide range of local amenities. Chiswick High Road is just a short distance away, offering an array of independent cafés, restaurants, traditional pubs, supermarkets and boutique shops.
