Cheadle Drive
Birmingham

Property Description

Connells are proud to introduce this beautifully presented 4 bedroom family home in a quiet cul de sac location, just 1 mile from Boldmere High Street in Sutton Coldfield and being central to multiple sought-after Sutton primary and secondary schools. This well-looked after family home has been superbly maintained by the current owner and is turn-key ready to go. An impressively spacious downstairs features a good-sized main living room, leading out into a bright conservatory space, then to a beautifully maintained rear garden with well established lawn and passageway to the front of the house. But that's not all... also featured downstairs is a third reception room at the front of the property, having been previously converted from the garage space. An open-plan kitchen dining space is at the heart of the home, with modern integrated appliances and ample storage cupboards throughout. Upstairs features 4 good sized double bedrooms, with the main room having its very own en-suite to the side. All 4 bedrooms have the capacity for double beds and wardrobe space, with a well-maintained family bathroom accessible to all bedrooms. At the front of the property, the driveway has been developed to house multiple cars, with ample on-road parking available too. Viewings highly recommended at this lovely family home.
