Location

The delightful village of Ashcott (population c.1186) sits part way along the Polden ridge, having wonderful rural views of the Somerset Levels and its various tributaries, all situated some 5 miles south-west of Glastonbury. At its heart is the historic Church of All Saints, an early 15th century building, forming part of a group of six churches known as the Polden Wheel. Ashcott is particularly well known locally for its superb village community and benefits from a highly regarded Primary School, sports playing fields, pub at the village centre and active village hall. The village also offers good and convenient access to other local towns/employment centres, such as Taunton (18 miles), Bridgwater 10 miles), Wells (11 miles) Bristol (31 miles), Bath (31 miles) and Exeter (55 miles). The M5 motorway J23 (9 miles) and the A303 Podimore Junction (12 miles). Bristol International Airport is 23 miles and Castle Cary railway station (London Paddington) 15 miles.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous south-facing rear garden, predominantly laid to lawn and bordered by mature shrub beds and raised planters. A decked seating area extends directly from the rear elevation, providing an ideal space for al fresco dining and outdoor entertaining. The garden also benefits from pedestrian access to the garage and a side gate leading to the driveway. Overall, this is an excellent outside space for families and keen gardeners alike.
