A substantial, elegant and characterful Grade II Listed double-fronted cottage, offering 2,677 sq ft of well-proportioned accommodation over three floors, together with a large south-westerly facing walled garden.

The property is situated in the heart of Ottery St Mary, just a short distance from the impressive St Mary's Church, which forms an important focal point within the town, together with the excellent range of amenities on offer. These include a Sainsbury's supermarket and highly regarded primary and secondary schools.

An entrance porch opens into a welcoming hallway, incorporating a useful study area. From the hallway, access is provided to a family room and a spacious sitting room, providing ample space for lounge furniture and featuring a log burner and attractive display arches. A further reception room offers excellent flexibility and could be used as either a formal dining room or home office.

The kitchen is situated to the rear of the property and is fitted with a range of white-fronted cupboards and drawers at both base and eye level, together with space for modern appliances and a gas-fired Rayburn. The adjoining dining area is an excellent size, providing ample space for a large family dining table and chairs. A useful separate utility room adjoins the kitchen, whilst beneath the stairs is a cloakroom with access to the cellar.

The first floor provides four double bedrooms, one of which benefits from a dressing room, together with a family bathroom and separate WC. The fifth bedroom is located on the second floor and is accompanied by an en-suite shower room and useful eaves storage.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed, south-westerly facing walled garden. A patio immediately adjoins the rear of the house and leads onto an area of lawn, complemented by mature shrub borders. The garden also incorporates useful garden store, a vegetable plot, fruit trees and a garden shed positioned towards the far end.
