Welcome to Ivy Lane Farm

Ivy Lane Farm is not visible from the road which offers a feeling of privacy and seclusion as soon as you enter your grounds. The property occupies an impressive plot of approximately 1.41 acres, enjoying an elevated position along Ivy Lane in the sought-after village of Great Brickhill. The property is approached via a gated entrance opening onto a sweeping gravel driveway, which leads through to a substantial courtyard providing extensive off-road parking and access to the detached double garage and adjoining outbuildings.

The attractive red-brick barn conversion enjoys a charming, traditional appearance, complemented by slate-tiled roofs and a range of converted original cow sheds arranged around the courtyard. The generous grounds feature expansive lawns, mature trees and established hedgerows, creating a serene sense of space and privacy. The property's elevated setting is a particular highlight, offering far-reaching views across the surrounding Buckinghamshire countryside.

Entrance Hall

The property is entered via a welcoming entrance hall, which provides access to the kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, study and dining room.

Dining Room
22'4" x 10'4" (6.81 x 3.17)
The spacious dining room is full of character, featuring exposed timber ceiling beams, wooden flooring and an attractive brick fireplace recess with a substantial timber mantel. A large picture window allows an abundance of natural light to fill the room whilst enjoying views over the gardens. Offering ample space for a substantial dining table, the room also benefits from a staircase rising to the first-floor sitting room. You have charming storage area currently utilised for wine, featuring exposed brick walls, timber ceiling beams and tiled flooring.

Sitting Room
